REPORT BY THE REGISTRAR OF FRIENDLY SOCIETIES TO THE MINISTER OF FINANCE

INTRODUCTION

In terms of section 45 of the Friendly Societies Act, 25 of 1956 (the Act), I hereby submit the 40th Annual Report for the 2002 calendar year.

Friendly societies may be classified into the following categories:

(a) Societies that do not fall within the provisions of the Act:

- Societies that were established in terms of industrial agreements are exempted in terms of section 3(1) of the Act except that they must submit certain statistical information to this Office for inclusion in this report.

(b) Societies that fall within the provisions of the Act:

- Societies that an aggregate annual income of less than R 100 000 are exempted from the provisions of the Act by virtue of the discretionary powers granted in terms of section 3(2)(a) of the Act and consequently do not submit annual financial statements (exempted societies). The tables therefore do not contain information regarding these societies. At the end of 2002 there were 103 such societies of which five are in the process of liquidation in terms of section 37 of the Act.
- Societies that operate exclusively by means of policies of insurance issued by an insurance company registered in terms of the Long-Term Insurance Act, 1998 are exempted from the provisions of the Act by virtue of the discretionary powers granted in terms of section 3(2)(b) of the Act (underwritten societies). The tables therefore do not contain information regarding these societies. At the end of 2002 there were three such societies.
- Societies with an aggregate annual income in excess of R 100 000 shall furnish financial statements to the Registrar in terms of section 22 of the Act (self-administered societies). At the end of 2002 there were 73 such societies of which 3 are in the process of liquidation in terms of section 37 of the Act and one is in the process of converting to an insurance company in terms of section 38A of the Act.

STATISTICS

The tables in this report contain statistical information submitted to this Office by the societies for the year 2002. The tables contain full particulars of membership, benefits paid, revenue and assets of registered friendly societies as well as certain statistical information from industrial societies. Twelve industrial societies submitted statistical information as required.

Although there were 179 friendly societies registered under the Act at 31 December 2002 (see Table 8), statistical information in respect of only 47 of these societies is included in this report (see Table 3). Information on the remaining 132 self-administered societies was excluded for the following reasons:

- eight societies were in the process of liquidation in terms of section 37 of the Act.
- 22 societies failed to submit financial returns on time. A complete list of these societies appears in Table 7.
- one society is converting from a friendly society to an insurance company in terms of section 38A of the Act.
- 98 societies were exempted in terms of section 3(2)(a) and
- three societies were exempted in terms of section 3(2)(b) of the Act.

The financial year of all registered societies ends on 31 December.

ADMINISTRATION

During the year under review no societies were registered and two societies were cancelled in terms of section 36 of the Act. No new exemptions were granted in terms of section 3(2)(a) of the Act.

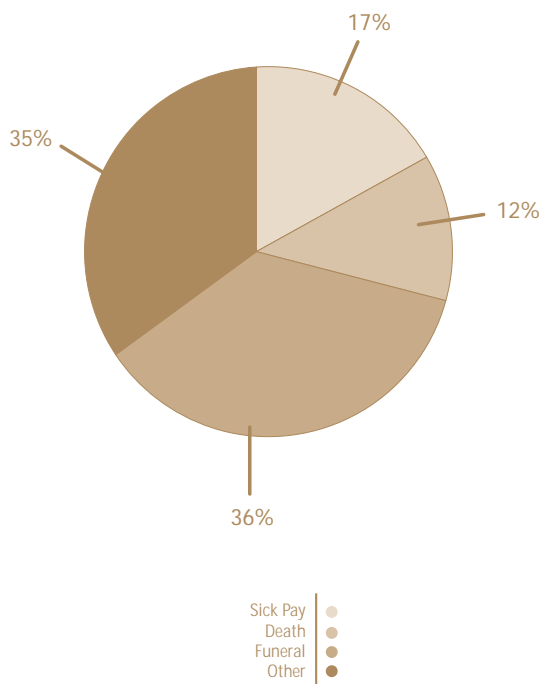

INCOME , EXPENDITURE AND CASH FLOW

Table 1 shows a summary of income and expenditure of self-administered societies. Total contributions account for 68.5% (2001:47.5%) and income from investments accounts for 25.8% (2001:39.1%) of total income in 2002. Administration costs account for 13.5% (2001:18.4%) of total expenditure in 2002.

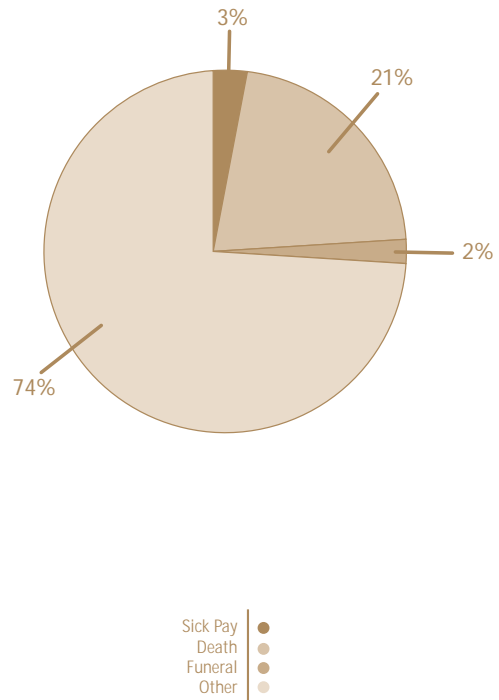

Total net cash inflow (excluding depreciation and provisions) turned negative as it decreased from R 38.2 million in 2001 to a deficit of R 20.4 million in 2002.

The decrease is attributed to the conversion of Algoa Income Protection Plan to an insurance company and the liquidation of two societies, which resulted in a substantial decrease in net cash inflow for 2002.

SELF-ADMINISTERED SOCIETIES

INDUSTRIAL SOCIETIES

The type of benefits provided by self-administered societies (Table 5) remains consistent. The greater proportion of benefits provided by societies accounts for sick and other benefits. Other benefits consist mainly of educational benefits. Benefits paid by self-administered societies (Table 4) account for 43.5% of total expenditure in 2002 (2001:66.7%).

The benefits paid by industrial societies decreased by 40.1% from R 181.3 million in 2001 to R 108.6 million in 2002. The reason for the decrease in benefits paid by industrial societies is that educational and compassion based benefits decreased from R 157.2 million in 2001 to R 80.7 million in 2002.

ASSETS

Net assets of self-administered friendly societies (total assets less creditors and provisions) as shown in Table 2 increased by 28.4% from R 412.2 million in 2001 to R 295.0 million in 2002. The reasons for the decrease in the net asset value are:

- Two societies with an aggregated asset value of R 38.4 million went into liquidation during 2002.
- Algoa Income Protection Plan with an asset value of R 52.7 million in 2001 converted to an insurance company and the society did not submit returns for 2002.
- Revaluation of assets held and non-compliance with section 22 of the Act also resulted in a decrease in the value of the accumulated net assets.

INVESTMENTS

Return on investments

The return on the balance sheet value of investments made by self-administered friendly societies, is calculated by using the following formula:

$$R = \frac{2i}{A + B - i}$$

where R = Return on investments.
A = Initial value of investments.
B = End value of investments.
i = Interest, dividends, rent and policy income (see Table 1).

By applying this formula to the total investments of all the self-administered friendly societies, which are included in Table 2, the return on investments is calculated as follows:

	1998	1999	2000	2001	2002
% returns	9.5	10.0	6.5	12.6	4.7

SUPERVISORY MATTERS

Inspections

No inspections in terms of section 3 of the Inspection of Financial Institutions Act, 38 of 1984, were conducted during 2002.

Algoa Income Protection Plan converted to an insurance company on 10 July 2003 in terms of section 38B of the Act, as it no longer complied with the provision of the Friendly Societies Act 25 of 1956.

Overdue returns

Twenty-two societies were overdue for submission of financial returns at the cut-off date of this report. The names of the societies whose financial statements are still outstanding are published in Table 7.

Societies which did not comply with the provisions of section 22 of the Act read with regulation 11 of the Regulations were fined in terms of section 48 of the Act for the late submission of financial returns.

REGULATORY DEVELOPMENTS

Amendments to the Act and Regulations

There were no amendments made to the Act and Regulations in 2002.

CONCLUSION

I wish to express my thanks to the Department of Labour for their assistance in furnishing me with information on industrial funds. I also wish to express my appreciation for the co-operation shown by the friendly societies and individuals with whom this Office has had dealings.
