While the FSCA does not comment on the specifics of the Ghost Father of Forex and Mr Witbooi's business, it must be noted that the Ghost Father of Forex and Mr Witbooi are not authorised in terms of any financial sector law to provide financial services to the public in South Africa. Notwithstanding the FSCA's attempts to contact the Ghost Father of Forex and Mr Witbooi, both were unreachable on the contact details available to the FSCA.

To avoid unnecessary risk, the public should refrain from accepting financial advice, assistance, or investment offers from individuals or entities not authorised by the FSCA. Authorised financial services providers must clearly display their authorisation status in their documentation. If this is not present, it is advised to further investigate before making any payments.

Commissioner: U. Kamlana | Deputy Commissioners: A. Ludin | K. Gibson | F. Badat

It is highly recommended that the public verify:

- that an entity or individual is authorised by the FSCA to provide financial products and services, including for giving recommendations about how to invest.
- what category of advice the person is registered to provide, as there are instances where companies or people are registered to provide basic advice for a low-risk product and then offer advice on far more complex and risky products.
- that the FSP number utilised by the entity or individual offering financial services matches to name of the FSP on the FSCA database.

One of the following methods may be used to confirm the status and FSP number of a service provider or a person that claims to be an authorised service provider:

1. Toll-free number: 0800 110 443
2. Online search for authorised financial institution by license category:

3. Online search for a financial institution that is an authorised FSP in terms of the FAIS Act: https://www.fsca.co.za/Fais/Search_FSP.htm
