

FSCA Press Release

26 April 2022

FSCA warns the public against Uhuru Tribe, Uhuru-X, Uhuru Cash, CBI X SA (Pty) Ltd (CBI X SA) Registration No. K2019/120406/07, CBI Global and Mr Coenraad Barend Nolte Botha.

The Financial Sector Conduct Authority (FSCA) would like to warn the public to act with caution when conducting financial services business with Uhuru Tribe, Uhuru-X, Uhuru Cash, CBI X SA, CBI Global and Mr Coenraad Barend Nolte Botha (the investigated parties). The FSCA reasonably suspects that the investigated parties may be conducting unregistered financial services business. The investigated parties are not authorised to render any financial advisory and/or intermediary services in terms of the Financial Advisory and Intermediary Services Act No. 37 of 2002.

The FSCA is currently conducting an investigation in respect of the business activities of the investigated parties. The purpose of the investigation is to establish whether the investigated parties are conducting unregistered financial services business.

The investigation is on-going.

The FSCA would like to notify members of the public that should they receive a notice in terms section 136 of the Financial Sector Regulation Act No. 9 of 2017 (FSR Act) from the FSCA to either submit documents and/or information relating to the investigation or to appear before the investigators for questioning, they must comply with the requirements of the notice. Members of the public must note that in terms of section 139 read with section 267(5) of the FSR Act, failure to comply with a notice issued in terms of section 136 of the FSR Act may be viewed as a hinderance of the investigation process that is a criminal offence.
