The FSCA warns the public against Platinum Financial Services Group

The Financial Sector Conduct Authority (FSCA) would like to warn the public to be cautious when conducting financial services business with Platinum Financial Services Group (Platinum). Platinum is not authorised to render any financial advisory and/or intermediary services in terms of the Financial Advisory and Intermediary Services Act No. 37 of 2002 (FAIS Act). The FSCA received information from a member of the public that has raised material concerns with the FSCA.

Platinum offers investments to members of the public with a monthly return of 5%. It is also alleged that Platinum offers commission of 2% on all investment referrals.

The FSCA is of the view that Platinum is likely conducting financial services business and requires a Financial Services Provider licence from the FSCA. It is also highly likely that they are conducting unregistered business, which is a criminal offence.

Members of the public should always check that an entity or individual is registered with the FSCA to provide Financial Advisory & Intermediary Services and what category of advice it is that the entity is registered to provide.

The FSCA reminds customers who wish to conduct financial services with an institution or person to check beforehand with the FSCA on either the toll free number (0800 110 443) or on https://www.fsc.co.za/Fais/Search_FSP.htm whether such institution or person is authorised to render financial services.
