FSCA issues public warning against Forex Venus SA and Mr Ofentse Maluleke

The Financial Sector Conduct Authority (FSCA) warns the public to be cautious when conducting financial services business with Forex Venus SA and Mr Ofentse Maluleke (Mr Maluleke)

It has come to the attention of the FSCA that Forex Venus SA and Mr Maluleke are soliciting funds from members of the public for investment purposes, while promising unrealistic returns. Members are recruited through Facebook. Forex Venus SA and Mr Maluleke also provide signals and trading services to members of the public. The FSCA points out that unrealistic returns must be viewed with great suspicion.

While the FSCA does not comment on the specifics of Forex Venus SA and Mr Maluleke's business, it must be noted that Forex Venus SA and Mr Maluleke are not authorised in terms of any financial sector law to provide financial services to the public in South Africa. Notwithstanding the FSCA's attempts to contact Forex Venus SA and Mr Maluleke, they were unreachable on the contact details available to the FSCA.

To avoid unnecessary risk, the public should refrain from accepting financial advice, assistance, or investment offers from individuals or entities not authorised by the FSCA. Authorised financial services providers must clearly display their authorisation status in their documentation. If this is not present, it is advised to further investigate before making any payments.

The public is strongly urged to exercise caution when considering investment or trading offers on social media platforms or any unsolicited offers.

It is highly recommended that the public verify:

- that an entity or individual is authorised by the FSCA to provide financial products
