FSCA warns the public against BSM Financial Solutions

The Financial Sector Conduct Authority (FSCA) warns the public to exercise caution when conducting financial services business with BSM Financial Solutions. The FSCA received information that BSM Financial Solutions are offering financial advice to the members of the public.

Without commenting on the business BSM Financial Solutions, the FSCA confirms that BSM Financial Solutions are not authorised by the FSCA to provide financial advice to members of the public. BSM Financial Solutions denied rendering financial services. The FSCA is currently assessing the matter.

To avoid unnecessary risk, the public should not accept financial advice, assistance, or investment offers from individuals or entities not authorised by the FSCA. Authorised financial services providers must clearly display their authorisation status in their documentation. If this is not present, it is advised to further investigate before making any payments.

The public is strongly urged to exercise caution when considering unsolicited investment or trading offers, especially those communicated through social media. The public is urged to act with care when investing their funds. There are many fraudsters operating scams, and the number is growing. South Africans lose millions of rands every year to fraudsters. Illegal operations are sometimes well-disguised as legitimate operations. The public is advised to be on the lookout for certain tell-tale danger signs when approached by persons offering attractive investment opportunities. These red flags include:

- Unrealistic or exaggerated returns
- Offers made on social media platforms
- Requirements to pay for services upfront
- Requirements to pay more money to have your investments returned
- Requirements to pay for training
- Claims that you must act and pay urgently i.e. creating a sense of urgency
- Vague information about the investment product.

Executive Committee:

Commissioner: U. Kamlana | Deputy Commissioners: A. Ludin | K. Gibson | F. Badat

Members of the public may use one of the following methods to confirm whether a service provider or person is authorised to act as an FSP by the FSCA, including to verify their FSP number:

For an individual, check that person's ID number against the one the FSCA has on record and call the FSCA if there are any concerns.

To verify whether a financial services provider or individual is authorised, members of the public can use one of the following methods:

- 1) Toll-free number: 0800 110 443
- 2) Online search for authorised financial institution by license category:
